1 Introduction

1.1 Objective

This document is intended to provide a report on the implementation of the web site of the Serenoa project.

1.2 Audience

This document is targeted to all the Serenoa Consortium and the European Commission.

1.3 Related documents

- All deliverables related to dissemination

1.4 Organization of this document

Chapter 1 presents the objectives, audience and related documentation to this deliverable. Chapter 2 describes the design and implementation of the website, chapter 3 explains auxiliary tools and finally chapter 4 describes the infrastructure used and how to administrate the web site.
2 Web Site

2.1 Introduction

The web site is available at http://www.serenoa-fp7.eu or http://serenoa.morfeo-project.org which is hosted and maintained by the Morfeo Open Source Community [MORFEO].

The different modules and services available in the web site are explained on the following sections.

2.2 Home page

The home page [Figure 1] includes a short description of the project and includes the following sections:

- General information which provides different navigation lists to the main sections: the fact sheet, deliverables, newsletters, project events or contact information.
- Horizontal navigation bar with links to the WIKI, forge and a set of statistics of the web site (visits by domains, statistics of traffic, etc…). This navigation bar is placed in the header of the web site.
- “Members section” that represents all the partners as a rotating list of logos.
- A section called “Related projects” that shows a set of projects related to Serenoa.
- Section targeted to dissemination with links to groups defined in Twitter, Facebook and Slideshare.

4 Infrastructure

4.1 Introduction

The infrastructure for the Serenoa Project is provided by Morfeo Project [MORFEO]. The web site was designed jointly by Telefónica Investigación y Desarrollo S.A. and the School of Computing of the Universidad Politécnica de Madrid. The web site is hosted and maintained by the QualiPSo Competence Centre funded by the FP6 Qualipso Project.

4.2 Administration

The web site is based on WordPress [WORDPRESS] which is a web applications intended to create a web site or blog. The main functionalities are listed below:

- Add new posts by the members
- Upload media elements to the website like images, video, etc…
- Add links in the home page
- Create new pages in the web site

A detailed description of the functionalities provided by WordPress [Figure 4] can be found on the documentation available at http://codex.wordpress.org/Main_Page.
